

STUDENT GUIDE

PURPOSE: This student guide is designed to inform you as to what you may expect while attending Senior Leaders Course/Advance Leaders Course. These provisions are official and are subject to change only with the Commandant's approval. Read this guide and understand it fully. You will be accountable for complying with its contents.

OBJECTIVE: To inform each Noncommissioned Officer enrolled in SLC/ALC of school policies and individual responsibilities.

SCOPE: This guide is applicable to all NCOs attending SLC/ALC and serves as the basis for standards of conduct. NCOA policies are based upon existing regulations governing the course of instruction and further define established policies implemented by the Commandant.

ORGANIZATION OF THE UNITED STATES ARMY LOGISTICS UNIVERSITY (ALU) SENIOR/ ADVANCE LEADER COURSE:

- a. The 1SG has overall responsibility for their course (SLC/ALC). The 1SG is also responsible for implementing and maintaining established standards.
- b. Operations Sergeant is responsible for in/out-processing of all students, all administrative functions of the course and coordination with outside agencies in support of all students assigned/attached to SLC/ALC.
- c. Small Group Leaders: The 1SG assigns a Small Group Leader to each class for the entire course. They are the immediate supervisors of all students regardless of rank or grade. The Small Group Leader is responsible for conducting classes, assigning leadership positions, evaluating, training, and counseling their students.

MISSION OF THE NCO ACADEMY: Exercise operational control and provide administrative, logistical and moral support for all personnel assigned or attached. Conduct training in small group environment in the areas of leadership, logistics, and physical readiness, utilizing technically competent and tactically proficient Small Group Leaders to mentor, lead, and train NCOs to be trainers and leaders of the Non-commissioned Officer Corps.

OBJECTIVE OF THE NCO ACADEMY: The objective of SLC/ALC is to better prepare selected Sergeants through Sergeant First Class to be technically competent and tactically proficient leaders and trainers of Soldiers. This is accomplished by placing emphasis on:

- a. Standards.
- b. Practical application of leadership skills.

- c. Esprit de Corps.
- d. Technical competence through conference, hands-on and Small Group Instruction (SGI).

RULES AND GUIDELINES: The following are rules and guidelines which apply to all members of SLC/ALC: Each student will serve and be evaluated in a minimum of two leadership positions; i.e., Squad Leader, Platoon Sergeant, or First Sergeant. Leadership skills will be evaluated using the leadership competencies.

CONDUCT: The conduct of an NCO, both off and on duty, must be above reproach. Tardiness is an indicator of poor leadership and will not be tolerated. Drunkenness displays poor judgement on the part of the individual and violators will be subject to UCMJ action. Driving while intoxicated (DWI) is inexcusable and will be dealt with severely. (This includes possible removal from the course. You are a NCO and should conduct yourself accordingly. Anything less than this is unacceptable.)

LEAVE AND PASS POLICY:

- a. Personnel should have a leave DA Form 31 covering travel time for the TDY period and leave time if authorized at the completion of the course.
- b. Leaves are given for emergencies or compassionate reasons only. If more than three training days of POI are missed as a result of an emergency leave, you could be subject to possible dismissal for compassionate reasons.
- c. You may go on pass anytime that you are not on duty or training. To avoid unnecessary complications, use good judgement and do not be late returning.

FINANCE:

- a. Ensure all finances are taken care of before attending the course.
- b. Students are responsible for Lodging and all meals.
- c. Students may be housed on or off post lodging facilities.

CRIME PREVENTION: It is the job of each and every individual to be security conscious and be on the lookout for criminal acts and violations of the command directive.

CURRENT INFORMATION:

- a. All current policy letters are provided for the student at the monitors table in each classroom. Individuals are required to be familiar with unit policy letters at all times. In addition, you must read and follow the training schedule.

b. Any questions regarding the information on the monitors table or on the unit training schedule, will be directed to the Small Group Leader or 1SG immediately.

PRIVATELY OWNED WEAPONS: NOTE: Privately owned weapons are NOT authorized to be brought to the course; storage capability is not available.

DRUGS AND ALCOHOL: Driving while drinking; possessing an open container; driving under the influence of alcohol or drugs is extremely serious; under the influence of alcohol or drugs during duty hours will not be tolerated. One incident will lead to an administrative relief from the course.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY AND SEXUAL HARASSMENT:

a. It is the policy of the commandant that all individuals receive equal opportunity and treatment irrespective of their race, color, national origin or sex.

b. Any member of this command who feels he or she has been discriminated against, on or off post, should register that complaint with the SLC/ALC 1SG immediately.

c. It is essential that all members of this command not accept practices which promote sexual harassment, but continually work together to eliminate all forms of sexual harassment, both in and out of the work place.

d. All reported incidents of sexual harassment will be investigated.

OPEN DOOR POLICY:

a. It is the right of each person assigned or attached to this unit to present complaints, grievances, and/or problems to the SLC/ALC 1SG, Deputy Commandant Commandant, the Inspector General or higher headquarters.

b. The Commandant's door is always open to each member of this unit. Appointments are needed, everyone must go to their chain of command prior to presenting complaints, grievances or problems to me for resolution.

ARMY PHYSICAL FITNESS TEST (APFT) AND WEIGHT STANDARDS REQUIRED FOR ENROLLMENT/GRADUATION:

a. Policy: It is the responsibility of each member of the active military service to keep physically fit in order to perform his or her duties under arduous or demanding conditions.

b. Attainment and maintenance of weight standards are part of the criteria for successful completion of SLC/ALC. Failure to meet the standards will result in a marginal rating on your DA Form 1059. An APFT will be administered, to personnel attending a course which is eight (8) weeks or longer. ALARACT MSG 297/2009.

c. Personnel who fail the initial APFT or fail to meet height and weight will be administered one retest within 7-14 days from failure date. If the soldier fails the retest, he/she will receive a marginal rating on your DA Form 1059.

d. All personnel will participate in Physical Training daily. Personnel with physical profiles will participate within the limits of their profile.

e. Service members over the age 40 or will reach the age of 40 prior to attending any courses must be medically cleared/screened before attending a NCOES. Service members need to provide a copy of their most recent ERB as proof or they will be denied enrollment.

PROFILES – TEMPORARY/PERMANENT:

a. Soldiers who have permanent profiles 3 or 4 must have been before medical screening board prior to attending NCOES. Soldiers who have not been screened will not attend any courses. Soldiers who have been screened and cleared will participate to the limit of their profile. Valid medical permanent profiles (DA Form 3349) must have blocks 5, 6, 7 and physical fitness test completed with authorized exercises and alternate APFT events.

b. Soldiers with medical profiles (Temporary or Permanent) due to operational deployment will be permitted by their immediate Commanders to attend within the guidelines of their profiles. Soldiers must arrive at the aforementioned course of instruction with a copy of their current profile and a Memorandum signed by their Commander stating the profile is a result of injuries sustained due to operational deployment.

c. Temporary or permanent profiles will not be granted to exempt Soldiers from the requirement to meet body fat standards; therefore, such profiles will be deemed invalid.

LODGING:

a. NCOs attending the course will live in on or off post lodging.

b. Living areas will be maintained in a high state of police at all times.

c. Prohibited Items:
